A TIME FOR US: OF STUDIES

These years have been a time of learning—Learning to be a student, a classmate, a friend; learning responsibility. Sometimes these years were tough; studying late for an important test, working hours on homework, and being loaded with books. But the rewards from the learning of these years have made the years speed by.

A TIME FOR US:
OF FUN

Who could ever forget these years!
It wasn't all fun of course; there has been work,
dissappointments, and problems of youth.
But being here at school has left many memories of the good life; the fun times. We'll all remember friends—our class members, our teachers, and the good times we've experienced with them.

a Time for Us

A time for us someday there'll be When chains are torn by courage born of a love that's free,
a time when dreams, so long denied can flourish
as we unveil the love we now must hide.

A time for us
at last to see
a life worthwhile for you and me.

And with our love through tears and thorns
we will endure
as we pass surely through every storm.
A time for us someday there'll be a new world,
a world of shining hope for you and me.

A time for us
at last to see
a life worthwhile for you and me.

A TIME FOR US . . .

OF MEMORIES

Senior pictures, announcements, measuring of cap and gown, the class play, the Warrior; all this is being a senior. Yet being a senior and graduation is much more. It is a feeling of nostalgia for West Branch was our home. We will miss it and our assemblies, games, and dances but most of all our friends teachers and fellow students. As seniors, our days here are done, but its memories will never leave. Yes, these years were A TIME FOR US.

In response to the nationwide appeal, the students of West Branch under the direction of Mr. Lingenfelter did their thing and the campus was beautiful.

As a carefree senior

Dedication

As a valiant, sincere, young soldier

The 1971 Warrior sadly but proudly sets aside this page of its Book of Recollections in memory of Ted "Rip" Ropchock. Another of West Branch's fine Warriors to pay the supreme sacrifice for his country. The stars of Old Glory are whiter, the red a deeper red because of the lives of these young men.

The grief that is too hard to bear
We need not bear, or fear,
Be comforted, remembering That One who cares is near
And He will hold us by the hand
Until the dark skies clear.

G. Crowell

The muffled drum's sad roll has beat
The soldier's last tattoo;
No more on Life's parade shall meet
The brave and fallen few
On Fame's eternal camping-ground
The silent tents are spread,
And Glory guards, with solemn round,
The bivouac of the dead.

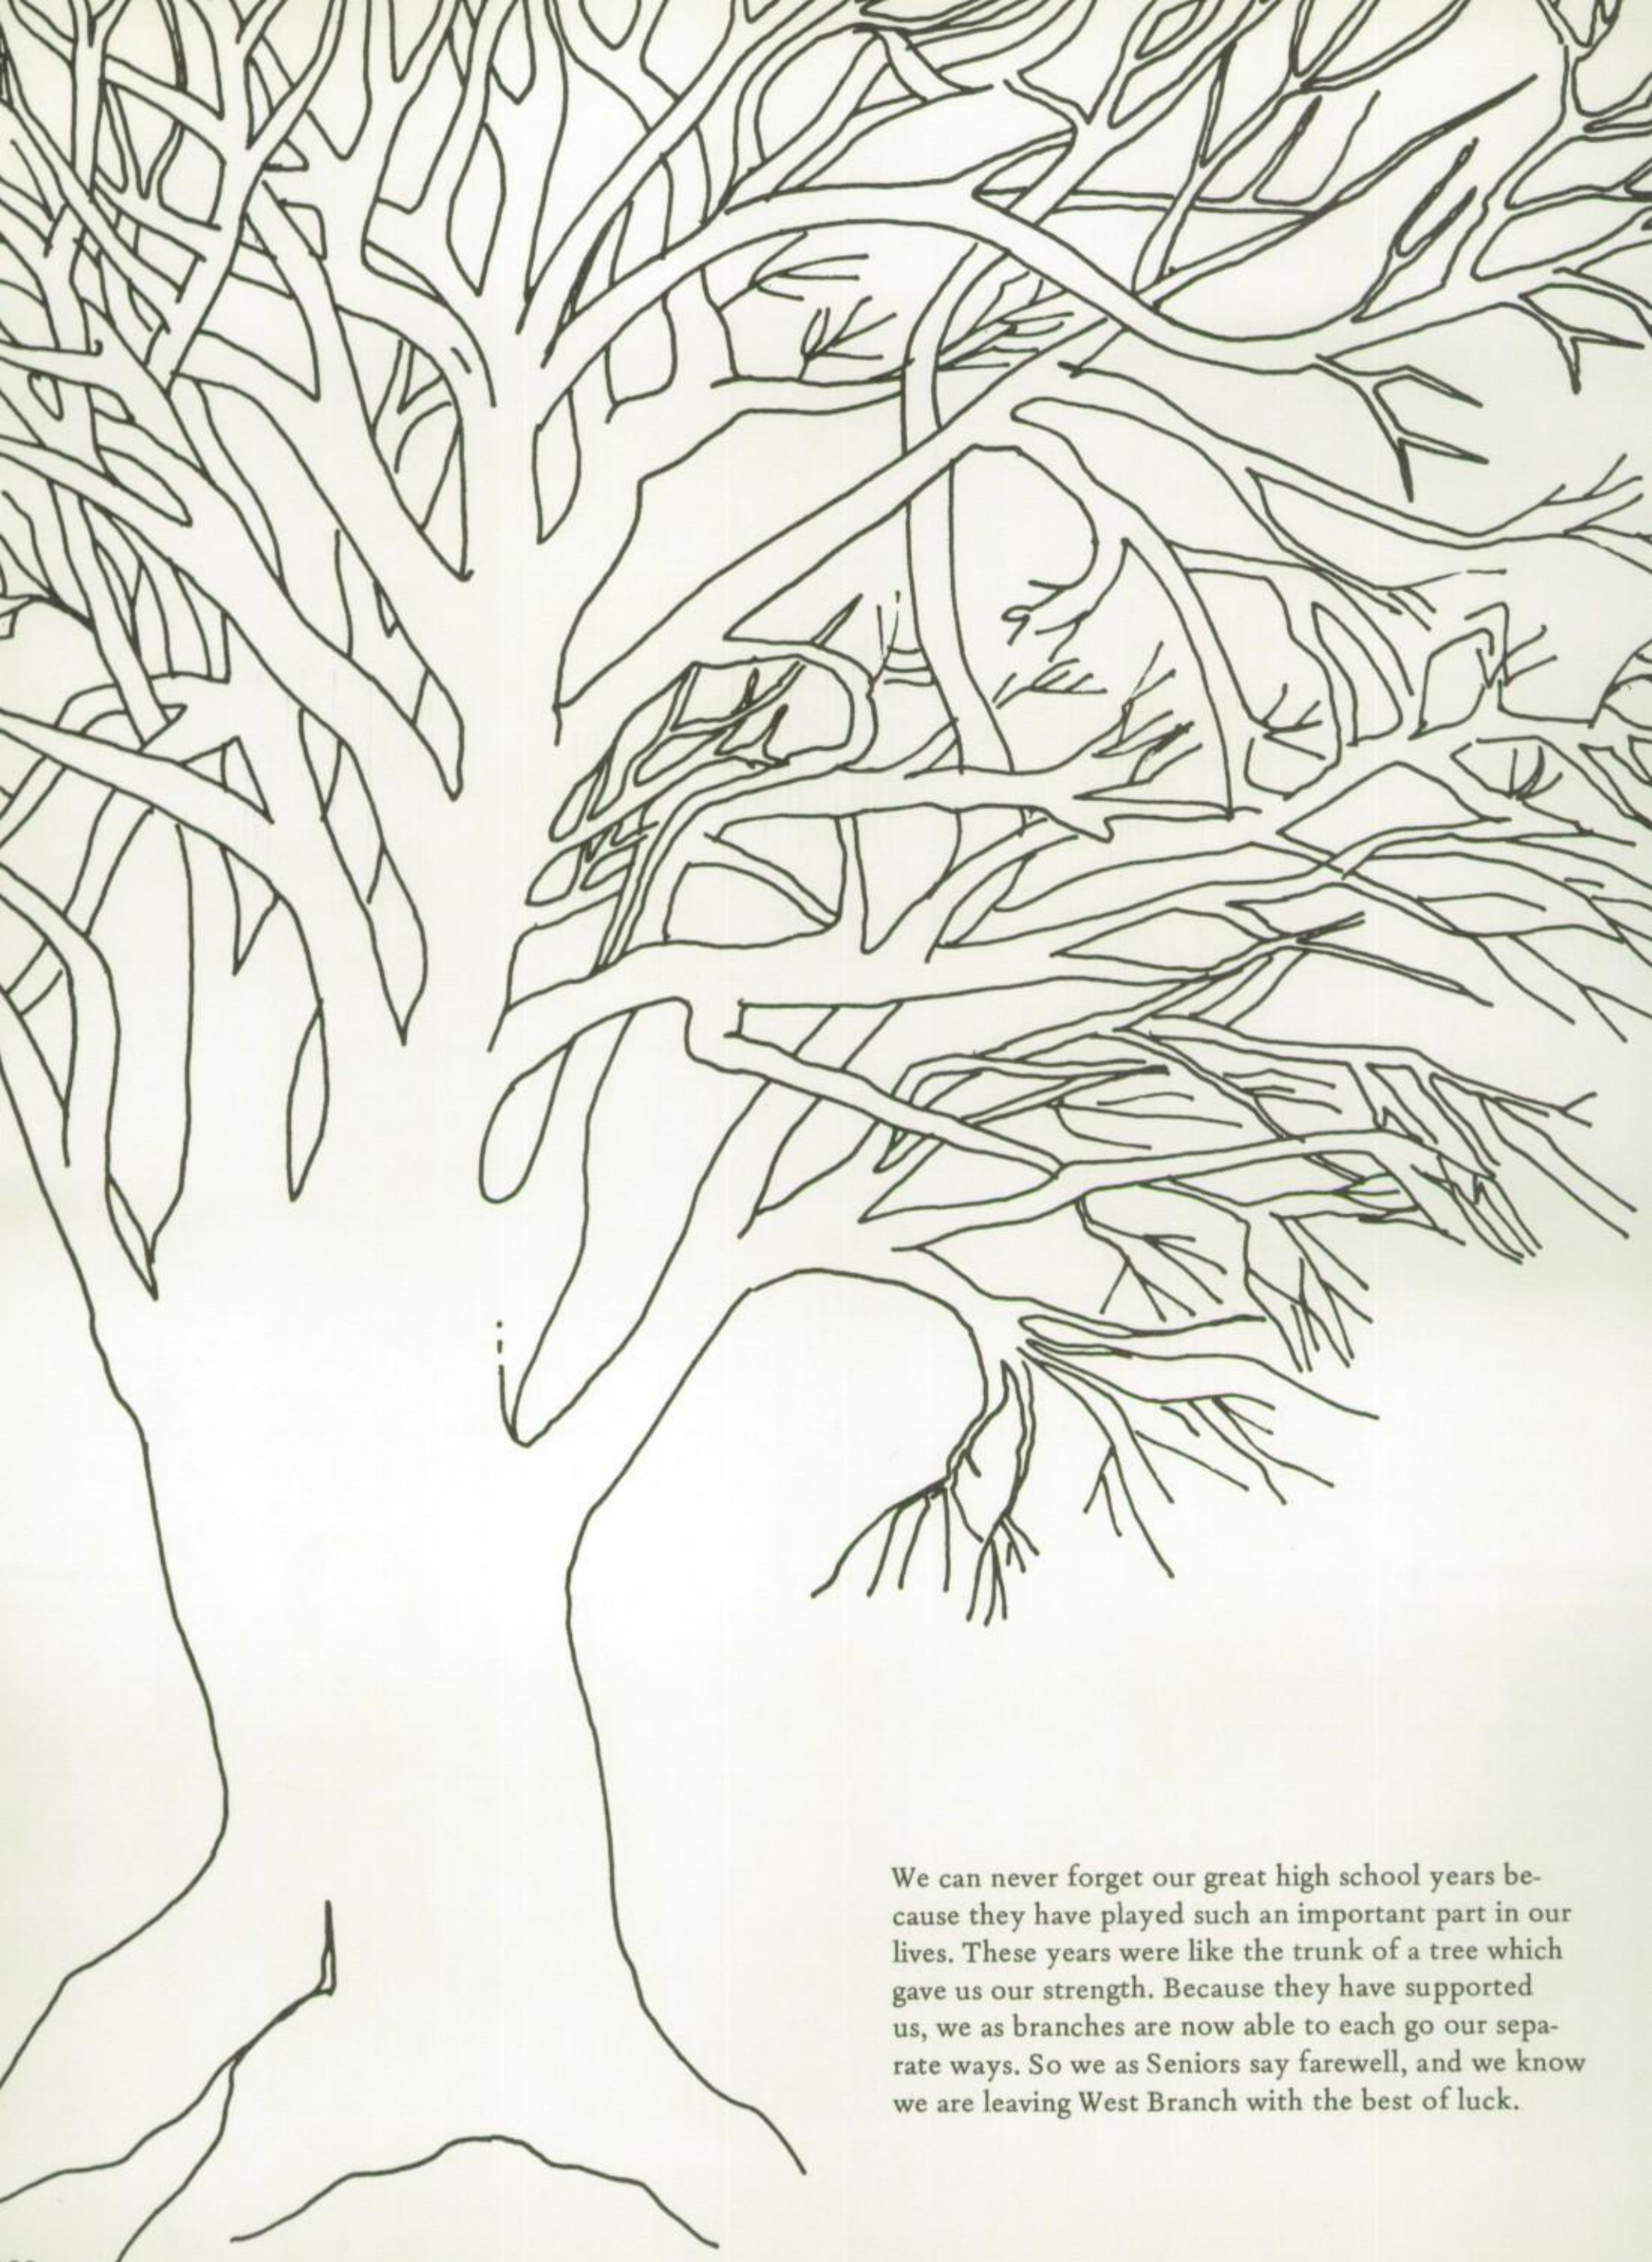

T. O'Hara

These heroes are dead. They died for liberty—they died for us. They are at rest. They sleep in the land they made free, under the flag they rendered stainless, under the solemn pines, the sad hemlocks and the tearful willows. They sleep beneath the shadows of the clouds, careless alike of sunshine or storm, each in the windowless palace of rest. In the midst of battles, in the roar of conflict, they found the serenity of death.

R. G. Ingersol

Hail and farewell . . . too soon the words are spoken,
Their sound, like some far-echoing silver bell . . .
O friend, O lover, comrade, sister, brother,
Hail and farewell.

G. Crowell

We can never forget our great high school years because they have played such an important part in our lives. These years were like the trunk of a tree which gave us our strength. Because they have supported us, we as branches are now able to each go our separate ways. So we as Seniors say farewell, and we know we are leaving West Branch with the best of luck.

Senior Farewell

We entered West Branch High School as seventh graders. Our first three junior high years prepared us for our exciting senior high years. As sophomores we chose these as our leaders: Tim Howe, President; Susie Conti, Vice President; Julie Janke, Secretary; Diane Rusnak, Treasurer. We enjoyed the privilege to be able to attend senior high dances. As Juniors we were led by Tim Howe, President; Sue Butler, Vice President; Jamie Tibbens, Secretary; Madalyn White, Treasurer. Memories of this year were: getting our classrings, the Gettysburg Trip, and the Prom. Last we were to enjoy our Senior year. We chose Tim Howe, President; Ronald Miller, Vice President; Sue Butler, Secretary; Diane Rusnak, Treasurer as our officers. Memorable events were our Senior play, ordering of announcements and graduation pictures, our unforgettable New York Trip, and of course graduation. We now leave our high school years behind us, and we are ready to find a new dawn.
